

Sponsored by the Harvard Library Office for Scholarly Communication

February 23–27, 2015

fairuse week

I WANT YOU to CELEBRATE

FAIR USE WEEK!

Guest blogging by Kenny Crews and Kevin Smith | Videos | Live Fair Use Panel | and more!

<http://bit.ly/fairuseweek15>

Supreme Court Justice and Harvard Law School professor Joseph Story created the four factor guidelines for fair use, now codified at 17 USC § 107, in 1841.

Sculpture of Joseph Story by his son, William Wetmore Story. Harvard Law School Library, photo by Ralph Lieberman, olvwork654772.